

Monochromatic Magic

- Uses one color family with any of its tints, tones or shades
- This one has a small accent of the complementary color green

Simply Elegant

- Warm Neutrals
- Outlined with a deeper value
- Small but bright details

Sweet Lavender For a Victorian Lady

A feminine hue is perfect for a refined Lady

Complementary Companions

- Orange and Peach dominate
- An Opposite color of a cool green complements and highlights the warm tones

Bright & Beautiful

- Bright colors mixed with darker hues for contrast

- Windows and architectural details are highlighted with deep colors

Minimize Details to Show a Grand Lady

- Some details are highlighted
- Most details are painted white to minimize visual impact

Bright Hues Bring out Details for Drama

- Pale Dusty Greens create a unified look
- Red and Yellow Oranges highlight details in windows, and on pillars and details

Using Roof Colors as a Starting Point

- A green roof makes the red shades of the structure stand out
- Detail is subtle in a deeper shade of body color

Small Structures can Make Big Statements

- The gray of the weathered shingle roof is minimized by the complementary body and trim colors
- The accent colors give it a whimsical touch
